LINEN

Dona Maria

Flores and Dona Maria met six years ago and immediately started collaborating. With her deep expertise in linen craftsmanship, Dona Maria is involved in every step of the linen process, from harvesting to weaving. She employs traditional methods passed on from generation to generation to create unique textiles, resulting in exquisite fabrics that embodies Flores' identity.

Isabelle Ormieres

Isabelle's natural dyeing practice spans over 13 years, focusing on eco-friendly techniques that celebrate vibrant colors derived from plants and other natural materials. Her work emphasizes sustainability and local sourcing, allowing her to create unique textiles that reflect her commitment to the environment. Through collaborations she continues to innovate in the realm of fashion and design, showcasing the beauty and versatility of hand-dyed fabrics.
