

FLORES

CLAUSTRA

Flores Studio presents an original design featuring a claustra made from handmade ceramic bricks. This architectural element serves as a structural component while creating an interplay of shadows and light throughout the space.

As sunlight filters through the ceramic grid, it generates patterns that shift throughout the day, enhancing the atmosphere and connecting the interior with the environment. The different angles of the bricks partitions reflects and refracts light, adding visual interest.

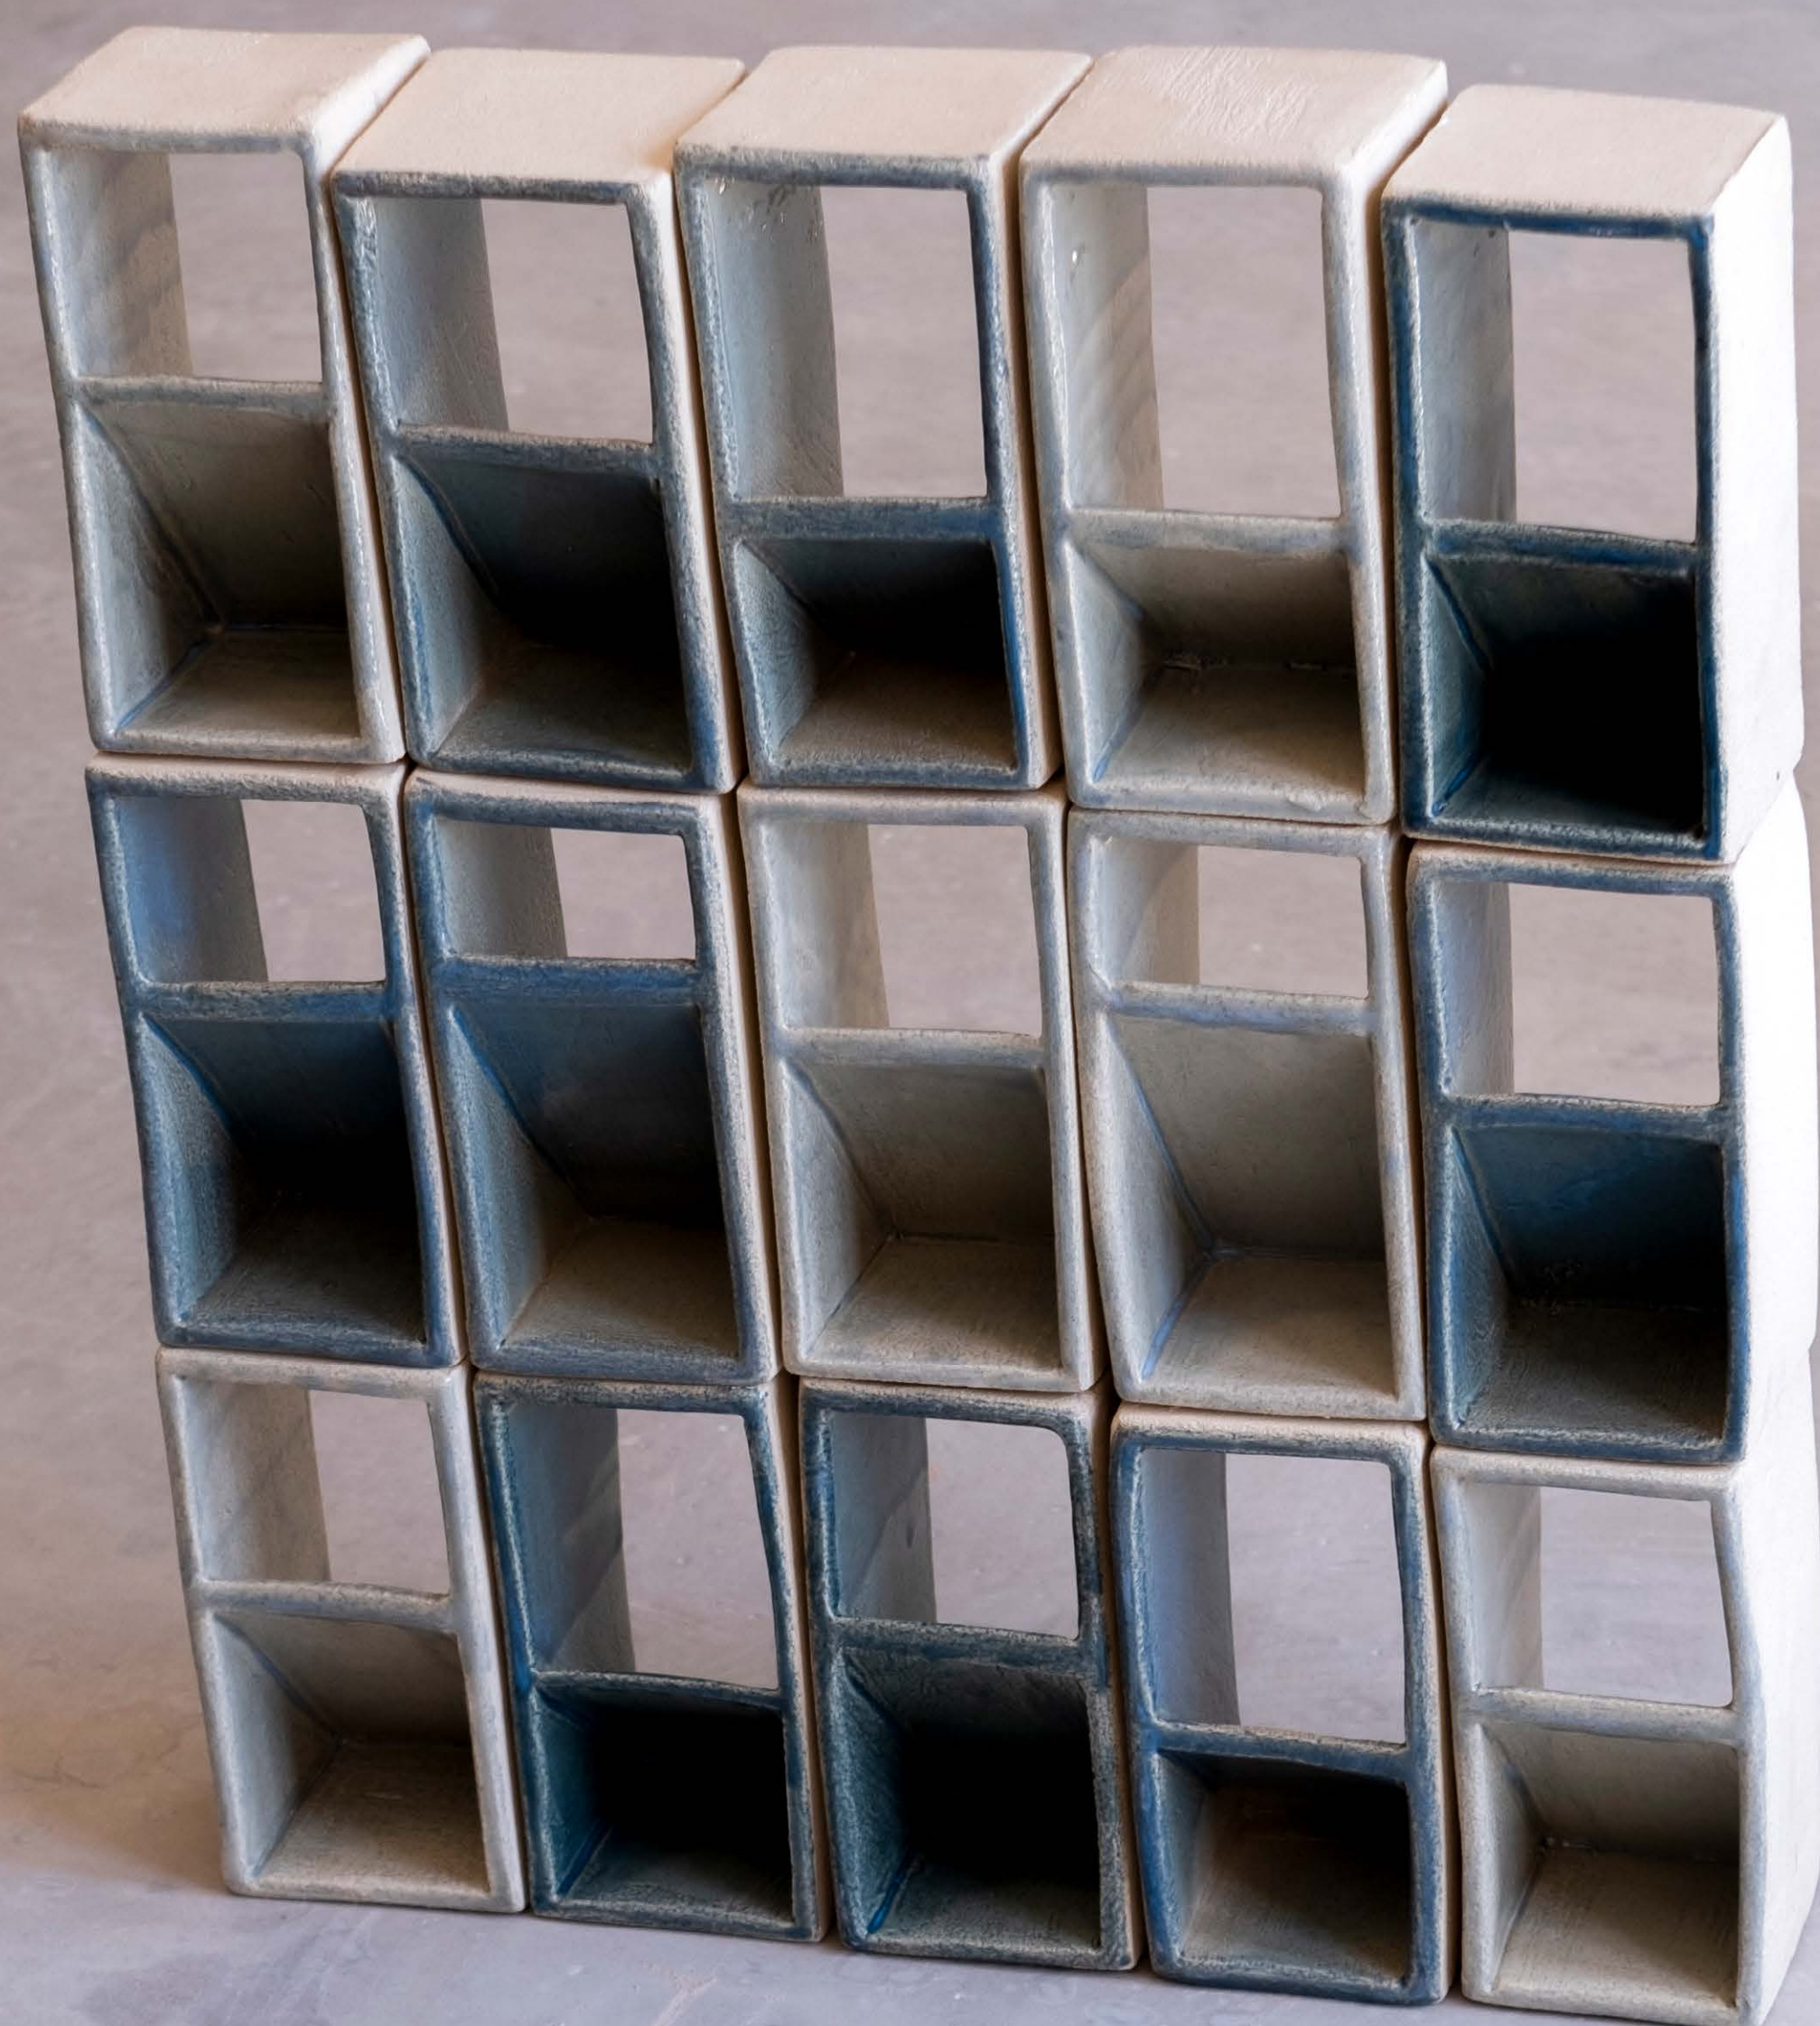

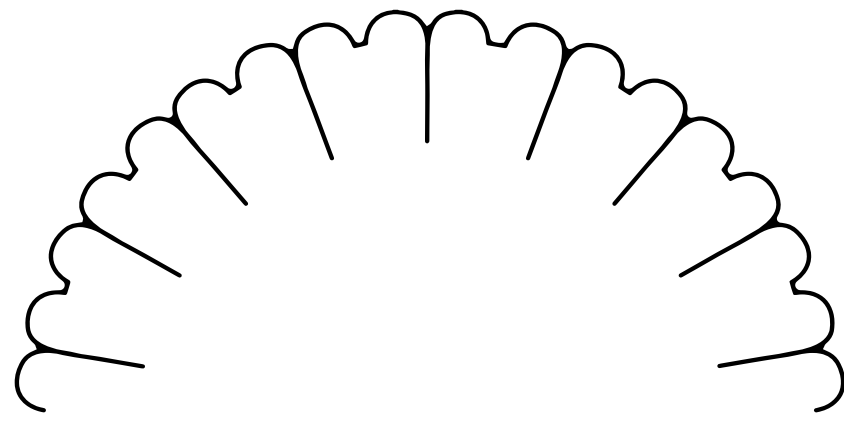

FLORES